Race for the Rivers Vendor Information: 2009

Vendors must be approved by the Race for the Rivers Committee.

Vendors must comply with all State, Local and Federal rules and regulations.

Vendors are expected to keep their space clean and to remove all items and trash at the time the event closes.

St Charles City Parks does not allow the distribution of promotional literature within the park.

There will be no vehicle traffic within the park from one hour prior to the start of the festival until 15 minutes after the festival closes.

No vehicle will be permitted to remain on the festival grounds without the express permission of the Race for the Rivers Committee. Any vendor granted such permission must turn in a vehicle description and plate number to the committee by August 1.

Booths must be staffed and in place from the start to the finish of the festival.

All booths must have a fire extinguisher.

All vendors must turn in a copy of the fire retardant tag from their tent by August first or they must procure their own tent permit from the City of St Charles. All tent permits are to be displayed during the festival.

Vendors making sales are responsible for all taxes on their merchandise. You will be provided with a valid copy of the concessionaire's report and a tax table at the festival.

Food may not be sold without making prior arrangements with Greenway Network. Food vendors will have to conform to all local regulations and standards including permits and insurance.

Vendors requiring electricity or water must make the request at the time of their application and submit the appropriate fees as indicated on the registration form.

Electricity and water usage must conform to code requirements including proper extension cords and hoses. Specific requirements will be sent once service has been requested.

Vendors must email a high resolution vector file of their logo to greenwaynetwork@gmail.com for inclusion in qualifying promotional materials.

Vendors making sales are asked to donate 5% of their profits to Greenway Network, Inc.

All materials are expected to be as environmentally friendly as possible and appropriate for a broad audience. You may be asked to hide or remove merchandise deemed offensive or inappropriate.

Space for accepted vendors will be assigned on a first come first served basis.
